VABAZA-BOOI FEELS HONoured TO SUPERVISE WOMEN'S TOURNEY

● Boxing luminary holds the reins in this year's International Women's Day extravaganza

By BONGANI MAGASELA

Siya Vabaza-Booi, Boxing SA's first female provincial manager, says she feels honoured to supervise the women-only tournament which will coincide with the annual celebrations of International Women's Day tomorrow.

The eight-bout boxing tournament at Nangoza Jebe Hall in New Brighton, Eastern Cape, is organised by veteran promoter David Faas's Universal Boxing Promotion in partnership with the Nelson Mandela Bay municipality.

This year's International Women's Day's theme is "Accelerate Action", which emphasises the importance of taking swift and decisive steps to achieve gender equality. "Boxing SA has been striving to address the systemic barriers I faced three decades ago, and I can safely say they are accelerating activity that positively impact women's advancement," Vabaza-Booi said.

"It is such an honour for me that I will be in charge of this big women boxing extravaganza."

woman to occupy that position since the new SA Boxing Act and Boxing SA came into being in 2001.

The position prevents her from refereeing and judging, activities she started in 1994. "Significant barriers to gender equality remain, yet with the right action and support, positive progress can be made for women," said Vabaza-Booi.

Topping the tournament will be an eight-rounder for the Eastern Cape flyweight title between champion Owethu "Sledgehammer" Rula and Zizo Skoti.

Rula is trained by Caiphus Ntate in Gqeberha.

The main supporting acts features three-times national lightweight titlist Nozipho "Nsimbi" Bell against Abongile Lubambo in a non-title eight-rounder. Bell, from Walmer in Gqeberha, has not seen action since October 2022. Her notable fight was in 2019 when she ended Unathi Myekeni's two years of fame as the WBF featherweight titleholder. Lubambo is a newcomer from Cape Town who has had six fights. There will be two six-round and four four-round fights.

Faas, who has been around as a boxing promoter since 2000, said: "This is just the beginning, more big and better things are still coming."

He said action will begin at 2pm.
